HOMEMADE GINGER BEER

- 1 fresh ginger root
- 2 cups raw cane sugar
- 3 limes
- Water

1. The starter culture can take a couple of weeks to get going, depending on the ambient temperature. Grate 2 tsp (about 10g) ginger and 2 teaspoons of sugar into 1 cup of water. Stir well, cover with cheesecloth, and set in a warm spot. Every day or two, stir in the same amount of grated ginger and sugar. When this starter starts bubbling (depending on temperature, this can be as soon as a couple of days, or more than a week), it's ready to use. If you don't use it right away, keep it active by feeding it with additional sugar and grated ginger every couple of days.
2. Once the starter is active, bring ½ gallon of water to a boil. Add about ¼ cup (40g) grated ginger for a mild brew, or up to ¾ cup (120g) grated ginger for strong ginger flavor, and 1½ cups (270g) sugar, and boil for 15 minutes. Allow to cool to body temperature.
3. When cool, strain out and discard the ginger. To the liquid, add the juice of the limes and the strained starter culture. (Optionally, to keep the starter going for future batches, reserve a couple tablespoons of the starter culture, add more water, grated ginger, and sugar to it, continuing to feed as in Step 1.) Bottle the ginger beer in sealable bottles. Glass swing-top bottles work best, but glass or plastic screw-top bottles can also be used. Let the bottles ferment in a warm place for 10-14 days.
4. Chill the bottles before opening. While the results of fermentation can vary slightly, ginger beer should contain no more than trace amounts of alcohol, and can be safely consumed by children.

LONELY LANE FARMS

Third-generation farmers Mike and Patty Kloft run a 165-acre farm in Mt. Angel and lease 300 acres of grazing lands at the historic Mt. Angel Abbey. This land provides space for the farm's animals to graze and roam freely, creating a great quality of life for the animals, a sustainable way of farming, and delicious, high quality meats for you.

CHOCOLATE SWIRL BANANA BREAD

Makes 8 servings

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup organic cane sugar
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 3 ripe bananas, finely mashed
- 1/2 tsp vanilla extract
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1 1/2 cup all purpose flour
- ¼ cup unsweetened cocoa powder
- 2 tsp baking powder

1. Preheat the oven to 350°F. Grease an 8x4 inch loaf pan with cooking spray or butter.
2. Cream together butter and sugar. Mix in eggs, bananas, and vanilla.
3. In a large bowl, mix together salt, flour, and baking powder.
4. Add flour mixture to butter mixture, stir until just combined.
5. Divide batter into 2 bowls. Mix cocoa powder into one, stirring until combined.
6. Spoon alternating spoonfuls of chocolate and plain batter into the prepared loaf pan until all is added. Drag a butter knife through the batter, swirling everything together.
7. Bake for 50-60 minutes, or until a wooden pick inserted into the center comes out clean.
8. Cool for 5-10 minutes, remove from the pan. Cool another 10 minutes before slicing, and cool completely before wrapping and storing.

GRILLED CHICKEN TACOS

Makes 8 tacos

- 1 lb boneless chicken thighs (about 4-5 thighs)
- 1 lime, juiced (about 3-4 Tbsp juice)
- ¼ cup fresh pineapple, minced (or pineapple juice)
- 2 Tbsp olive oil
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tsp chili powder
- ½ tsp smoked paprika
- ½ tsp onion powder
- ½ tsp sea salt
- ¼ tsp black pepper
- ¼ tsp cayenne (or to taste)
- ¼ tsp red pepper flakes (or to taste)
- ¼ cup cotija cheese
- ¼ cup red or sweet onion, chopped
- ¼ cup cilantro, snipped
- Salsa verde
- Corn tortillas, warmed

1. Pound chicken to an even ½-inch thickness. Place in a bowl or plastic zipper bag.
2. In a small bowl, whisk together lime, pineapple, olive oil, garlic, chili powder, paprika, onion powder, salt, pepper, cayenne, and pepper flakes. Pour over chicken and toss to coat. Refrigerate covered or sealed if using a zipper bag, at least 2 hours or overnight.
3. Heat grill to medium high, or about 400F. If broiling, set to high heat and preheat for at least 10 minutes. Remove chicken from marinade, shake off any excess.
4. Grill or broil chicken about 6-7 minutes per side, or until internal temperature reaches 165F. Allow to rest 10 minutes before chopping.
5. Divide meat between 8 corn tortillas. Serve with cheese, onion, cilantro, and salsa.

Tacos are also a great way to enjoy leftover turkey: shred the turkey, toss with our marinade ingredients (minus the salt), and fry briefly to reheat. Serve as above.

DIESTEL FAMILY RANCH ORGANIC YOUNG TURKEYS

Founded in 1949, Diestel Family Ranch has been proudly raising turkeys for four generations in the foothills of Sonora, California. As a true family-run operation, their commitment to quality, sustainability, and animal welfare has never wavered.

DIESTEL TURKEYS ARE PURE TURKEY!

- Feed free from animal by-products
- Free from antibiotics and chemicals
- No preservatives or artificial ingredients
- Minimally processed
- No gluten

Each turkey is thoughtfully raised with care, in fact, they are one of the first turkey producers to receive Global Animal Partnership Step 5 rating.

The Diestel family says it best: "We've done everything but compromise the values we were founded on to raise the leanest, cleanest, most delicious birds that money can buy."
